Solicitor Purcell said he has been dealing with this lease for a number of months. He said the lease starts on January 1 and rent begins at 2,250 and raises 2 percent each year of the term. He said that is consistent with other leases. He said it is less than Connellsville because that was a new build and it is most comparable with Central Court. He said he knows MDJ Henning is looking forward to a new place. Commissioner Zimmerlink asked about a security section in the lease. Lori Lambie said the current security at MDJ Henning’s office will be moved to the new office. She also spoke about the doors and security details. Commissioner Zimmerlink said a security section needs to be added to the lease. They also discussed an early termination clause. Commissioner Vicites said the price per square foot is in line with the Central Court. The commissioners discussed the possibility of an office closing. Mr. Hercik asked about checking with county code about needing an appraisal.
